Sample Summary of Opinion

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Picture walking down any major street in a big city, in any country. Have you ever not been approached by a homeless person begging for money in these situations? I didn't think so. And what do we do? Ignore them. Most people are afraid they will be mugged or harmed if they stop to offer a handout to these people. For those that do stop, "Go get yourself a nice hot meal," one might say, but what about tomorrow? We can't let these people depend on handouts from passersby on the street.

Stats Canada states that 31% of all homeless or poor people are single mothers with infants or young children. What are they to do? Donations and shelters have been established but they don't seem to be making the problem go away. Crime rates may be increasing due to people stealing or killing to get what they want. Suicide rates may increase due to such people taking their own lives because they've given up hope and don't want to live like this anymore. It is really very sad. Welfare may be an option for people who just don't have enough, but what about people who don't have anything?

We need to think about this and we need to take action. What I think today's society can do is find some way to start an organization with corporate support that can provide such people with money, basic necessities, and housing. Maybe then we can help these people get jobs and they can start a real life. If we try hard enough, then surely we can accomplish something that will give these people hope and a chance to have a decent life.
